

Fifth International Conference of Saudi Orthopedic Association Surgery Orthopedic in collaboration with the International Federation of Paediatric Orthopaedic Surgeons and Sultan Bin Abdulaziz Humanitarian City

Sultan Bin Abdulaziz Humanitarian City is hosting the Fifth International Conference of Saudi Orthopedic Association Surgery Orthopedic in collaboration with the International Federation of Paediatric Orthopaedic Surgeons and Sultan Bin Abdulaziz Humanitarian City during the period of 20-23 February 1433 corresponding to 14 - 17 January 2012 AD.

The conference aims to providing those of interest to orthopedic surgery more experiences and knowledge which will progress to community service, development of scientific research, and creating communication channels to ensure advancement of our medical services and research, moreover is to find opportunities for training of academic and medical people in internationally acclaimed centers. A group of professors of orthopedic surgery from American universities, Canadian, European, Arab and Saudi universities will be participated in the event beside the participation of more than 500 physicians and technicians specializing in orthopedic surgery.

The conference will also discuss the developments and the latest researchs in the disciplines of orthopedics that includes the joint replacement surgery, prosthetic, sports and playgrounds' injuries, upper limbs' and hand surgeries, ankle and foot surgeries, accidents, fractures, spinal cord surgeries, pediatric orthopedics surgeries, skeletal and muscular tumors, medical rehabilitation which is one of the most important parts of the basic and complementary therapy after surgeries.

Specialized workshops will be held in the field of Hip Arthroscopy surgeries and Joint Replacements for the first time in the Middle East.